

Digital Neo-Latin studies: ideas and perspectives – Program

University of Aarhus & Centre for Danish Neo-Latin

Wednesday 24.9.2025 – room 1427-246

14.00-14.30 Opening by Marianne Pade (Aarhus) and Johann Rammingner (CDNL)

14.30-15.00 Neven Jovanović (Zagreb)

Cite, preserve, connect: Wikidata as a metadata layer for a Neo-Latin collection

15.00-15.30 Alexander Winkler (Berlin)

Exploring the Neo-Latin world through Linked Open Data: Resources, Opportunities, and Challenges

Coffee

16.30-17.00 Barbara McGillivray (London) & Valentina Lunardi (London)

Tracing Semantic Shifts in Neo-Latin Texts Using Word Embeddings

17.00-17.30 Sarah Lang (Berlin)

Efficient OCR Post-Correction and Annotation for Neo-Latin Corpora: A Human-in-the-Loop Workflow Integrating LLMs in Digital Scholarly Editing

17.30-18.00 Patrick Burns (New York)

Rebuilding the Library of Al3xandr!a: Latin Post-OCR Correction as a Philological Task

Thursday 25.9.2025 - room 1420-234

9.00-9.30 Julia Jennifer Beine (Würzburg)

Approaches to Building a Digital Neo-Latin Drama Corpus (NeoLatDraCor)

9.30-10.00 Florian Schaffenrath (Innsbruck)

Commentaries as Sources for Canonical Neo-Latin Texts

10.00-10.30 William M. Barton (Innsbruck)

Digital approaches to Neo-Latin and (New) Ancient Greek

Coffee

11.00-11.30 Christian Houth Vrangbæk (Aarhus)

Andrew among the Anthropophagi? Revisiting the Composition Debate of Acts of Andrew

11.30-12.00 Mads Rosendahl Thomsen (Aarhus)

How text moved front and center

12.00-12.30 Petr Pavlas (Prague)

TOME: Making, re-using, and embedding into a corpus of Neo-Latin scientific prints

Attendance is free, but please register no later than 17 September to Johann Rammingner (j.rammingner@gmail.com)